Educating for the future

Music Lessons (Piano & Guitar)

Course Summary

i12Learn Music lessons are designed to not only give you the discipline necessary to learn the music but will give you access to a grounding in the theory of music. If you are enthusiastic about ensemble playing, some opportunities should be available to you within your first year.

Our teachers all have relevant qualifications and experience in their field, with many of them being professional practising musicians. All of our teachers are CRB checked and offer music lessons as a profession. Our tutors can suggest syllabus material from a classic to modern repertoire, or you can steer the choice of repertoire.

The syllabus is divided into Beginner, Intermediate and Advanced levels. We believe strongly in motivation, so we encourage you to direct your own studies and to be involved in your choice of material.
